
Sims 4 Jail Mod !!HOT!!

A jail is a prison for Sims. The Sims 4 Jail is for the Sims 5. The Sims 4 Prison has a set of working real-life prison doors and windows. It has light switches and many other features a real prison has in a game, such as a target range. Installing this mod is very easy. No tools are needed and you can do it right on the Sims 4 CD. The only thing you will need is to open up the Auction House. When you click the Jail Mod link from the game, you will be asked where you want to install. There are three options to choose from. They are: "My Documents", "My SIMS" and "User Install". Go into User Install and follow the instructions on the screen. After it has been installed, use the normal method of installing mods (through the Auction House). Installation instructions When you first install the jail mod, it will generate a .diz file (ZIP) with a lot of files and folders. Do not delete anything on your computer because you will lose some of the features of the mod. To install this mod, simply move the .zip file to a location on your computer. Then double click "Sims4JD.zip" to extract the files. The mod itself was extracted to Sims4JD\Mods\Sims4JD (C:\Users\YourName\Documents\My Games\The Sims 4\Mods\Sims4JD in my case). When you get the error "There are no jail doors or windows in the Sims 4 database" ... That means there is something wrong with your. When installing the jail mod, you need to be at a "Permanent Update" area on your Sims 4, but before doing that, you can put it in your "Origin File" too. Go to your Sims 4 install folder (C:\Users\YourName\Documents\My Games\The Sims 4). Open Origin and press Windows on the keyboard on the bottom left. Click Open File. Select Origin Game on the list. Select Preferences and then click Show File Locations. Enter "C:\Users\YourName\Documents\My Games\The Sims 4\Mods\Sims4JD". Click Ok. Close the Origin. When you start up your Sims, they should be in jail. If you have any problems after that, then. Open up your
