Looks like you are on the right path on your quest! It is time to start collecting and preparing items and weapons for fighting against the enemy. But be warned: without any luck or special abilities, you will not be able to fight those monsters. While those monsters are not that strong, they are very mobile and you can die in no time. Your goal now is to collect some health items, weapons and armour so you do not die immediately in the following quest and start your quest a second time! How To Win: It is time to start fighting against the enemy! Use the arrows in the top left corner to move and drag items and weapons into your inventory. You do not have to aim or click as it will automatically select the item after a few seconds. Click on the enemy to throw the weapon and throw it with the right button. You can only throw a weapon if you have it in your inventory. You can use the weapon as soon as the red bar fills up. As long as you throw it, you can use it again. East
