These are the kinds of groups that have long been considered part of the U.S. power structure. There is an important lesson from all this for progressives. People are willing to put up with a lot of harm from the government if it means they can get jobs. It's time to refocus our progressive movements on creating real, good-paying jobs. Let's make sure that jobs for all are publicly owned, like our public schools. Michael Hardwick is a member of the Green Shadow Cabinet of the Green Party of Ontario.Treatment of pulmonary embolism with catheter-directed thrombolysis. Pulmonary embolism remains the leading cause of death in the western world despite great progress in diagnosis and treatment. Early treatment of pulmonary embolism is highly recommended. Catheter-directed thrombolysis is an alternative to systemic anticoagulation, but no large series has yet been presented. We treated 50 patients with pulmonary embolism using catheter-directed thrombolysis. The criteria for thrombolysis were technically successful recanalization (D-dimer below 1,500 ng/ml) and clinical improvement (pulse rate, respiratory rate and arterial blood pressure within the normal range) within 2 days. Follow-up examinations included CT scans, hemodynamic measurements and Doppler sonography of the lower extremities. Clinical outcome was
