Born from the heart of a company which won the prestigious Game Innovation Prize at the Mobile World Congress, Stealth Market holds many similarities with other games such as Robot Unicorn Attack, Geometry Dash, Pocket Trains or Puyo Puyo. You have a goal, the goal is money. But you must fly through space (and try not to crash) to reach it. This iPhone game has been designed from scratch, without relying on preexisting mechanics that may or may not appeal to players. In this case, what players do is to use the iPhone or iPod Touch touch screen to guide a small flying ship to the top of a seemingly endless space, while it is being chased by the bad guys that are trying to stop you. There are no flashing lights or noises as in most games, as stealth is involved. Instead of a score, you gain points whenever you touch the screen, run into obstacles or avoid being attacked by the bad guys, and steal their money. Stealth Market is yet another unconventional game for iPhone that offers innovative gameplay, an original artwork and the adaption of well-known physics simulators to the real-world environment. Some of the features are: * A beautiful 2D inspired by hiphop, jazz and watercolour * A cute sound track, harmonious and joyful * A rich and full artwork * Smooth and intuitive animation * A challenging, addictive gameplay that has received raving reviews Some of the features are: * A rich and full artwork with a hiphop sound track * Smooth and intuitive animation * A challenging, addictive gameplay * A beautiful 2D, inspired by hiphop, jazz and watercolor * A two-player mode * Clean, powerful and interactive app that includes the online leaderboards of the game How to play: You use your finger to guide the small spaceship you are driving. When you reach top of a level, the spaceship takes off and the next level begins. The game has three main goals: - Earn money to purchase upgrades: - Be fast and as silent as possible to avoid being attacked by the bad guys - Avoid obstacles and change position to avoid being shot Don't forget that the spaceship is very small so, sooner or later, you will crash into an obstacle or the bad guys. Nevertheless, you can always refuel the ship with the upgrade icons hidden around the levels. When you reach

What's new in DeathTolls Experience:

Set 2 - Upgraded Chit-chat Disclaimer: this is my FIRST thread, and if it's given the "any character can complete it" eye roll then know that I am not trying to be a whiner - Please don't downvote. The simple fact is that this is my first post. I found a bug when testing my build, which led to the defeat of an opponent - and I'm only just now realizing that that's what it should have done. Hey everyone - Death Toll experience for set two characters has started! This is largely the same as set one with the exception of upgrade restrictions, which mostly just means a lack of self-harm, This has been confirmed by Warlord Wortench: The game master for set one. As promised, I have a build for the Vanu VB that is not based on a retrospective or combo-dependent build. Do keep in mind that more than a few T8 support spots will be very weak to this build in T9. This build can be useful all throughout T8, that's to say that you start out with these utility options: *Um... more T8 support, also something you've all been asking? Join the dark side! I like arless for another option, although IMO it shouldn't be a universal T8 suit (I really hate seeing "Everything" help against T9). I meant to start with the LP reserves, but I might not - don't know why I didn't... That makes sense about arless (It should only be useful against T8). Since the game is designed to use max 3 reserves as much as possible and cannot reutilize them - the game is not designed to use every vit counter on the field. This is why people have been asking for sets - so that you can start a game off on some set piece of equipment until you finally get the rest. Wish I had a cool preview photo but I flew away from the computer in the middle of making it. Been trolling the forum for some threads that I can use to practice some stuff with my Vanu (there's the Chit-chat for my DPS build). The first build I'm going to show off is the concept, and then a list of sets I would use for it. I like to be able to use this... but that's going to be some thinking. As you can probably tell, it is a
