If the user will type spaces then the search text should be hidden. For example if I will type two words in the textbox then, if i will write another word then the page title will be changed automatically from text="Search Stackoverflow" to text="Search Stackoverflow yahoo". A: Check if the length of the content before you put it into title is greater than or equal to your suggested characters. var content = $("search").text(); if(content.length > 10){ $("#search").attr('class','search-short'); } else { $("#search").attr('class','search'); } Alemtuzumab plus fludarabine/cyclophosphamide/rituximab in previously treated
