[Chew on that for a while.] Apart from this particular post, the one question I do have, at the end, is this: Why should the “Indian” take responsibility for “Indian” problems? Why not let the Europeans/Westerners take care of their own problems, in the way that they want to, and then let the Chinese/Asians/Africans/South Americans take care of their own problems, in the way that they want to? Why not let the Arabs/Persians/Tribes of Asia/Africa/South America/Oceania take care of their own problems, in the way that they want to? Because we know what works in certain conditions. We know what works in our country. And we know, yes, what it takes to solve some problems (sweep the Muslim under the rug is not one of them). [Chew on that for a while
