The Ingoldsby Legends: Or, Mirth and Marvels (1864), illustrated by George Cruikshank and John Leech, eBook. In the far distant past, Ingoldsby, an adventurer (or so it was rumored), discovered the ancient city of Killyhevagh, a city whose ruins were discovered in the jungles of Africa by those now known as the African tribesmen. There, in that terrible place, he beheld the terrible visions of Killyhevagh and the legend which has remained in the histories for over twenty centuries, the legend of the two women whose beauty enchanted the entire world, especially Ingoldsby, yet whose voluptuous forms were entwined with the legs of the Great God himself... and so began THE INGOLDSBY LEGENDS.
